LOST, STOLEN, OR DESTROYED SALMON VESSELS (FGC Section 8239.1)

The Department shall accept a transfer application within one year after the date that a permitted vessel was lost, stolen, or destroyed. Only the permittee at the time of the loss, theft, or destruction of the vessel may apply for the transfer.

The Department may grant an additional six months extension for up to five years following the incident, if necessary, to complete the transfer process. Permit fees must be paid annually as required. The permittee must submit the request in writing.

LOST, STOLEN, OR DESTROYED DUNGENESS CRAB VESSELS (FGC Section 8280.3(g)(2))

In the event of loss or destruction of a vessel for which a Dungeness crab vessel permit was issued, or serious damage that renders the vessel inoperable, and upon written approval of the department, the owner of the vessel to whom the permit was issued may retain the permit and may transfer the permit to another vessel during the period of two years after the loss or damage of the vessel for which the permit was originally issued.

If the permit is not transferred to another vessel owned by the person to whom the vessel permit was originally issued within two years of the loss or damage, the permit shall be revoked.

LOST, STOLEN, OR DESTROYED NORTHERN PINK SHRIMP TRAWL VESSELS (Section 120.2(e)(4), Title 14 of the California Code of Regulations)

Any NPSTVP may be temporarily transferred, for up to one year, to a different commercial fishing vessel, if the permitted vessel is seriously damaged, has suffered a major mechanical breakdown, or is lost or destroyed. The request for temporary transfer must include documentation to substantiate the damage, breakdown, loss or destruction.

Submit copies of the following:

1. Current Commercial Boat Registration.
2. Current original vessel permit.
3. Report filed with the United States Coast Guard or any other law enforcement agency or fire department investigating the loss or proof that the permitted vessel has suffered a major mechanical breakdown or has been seriously damaged.
