
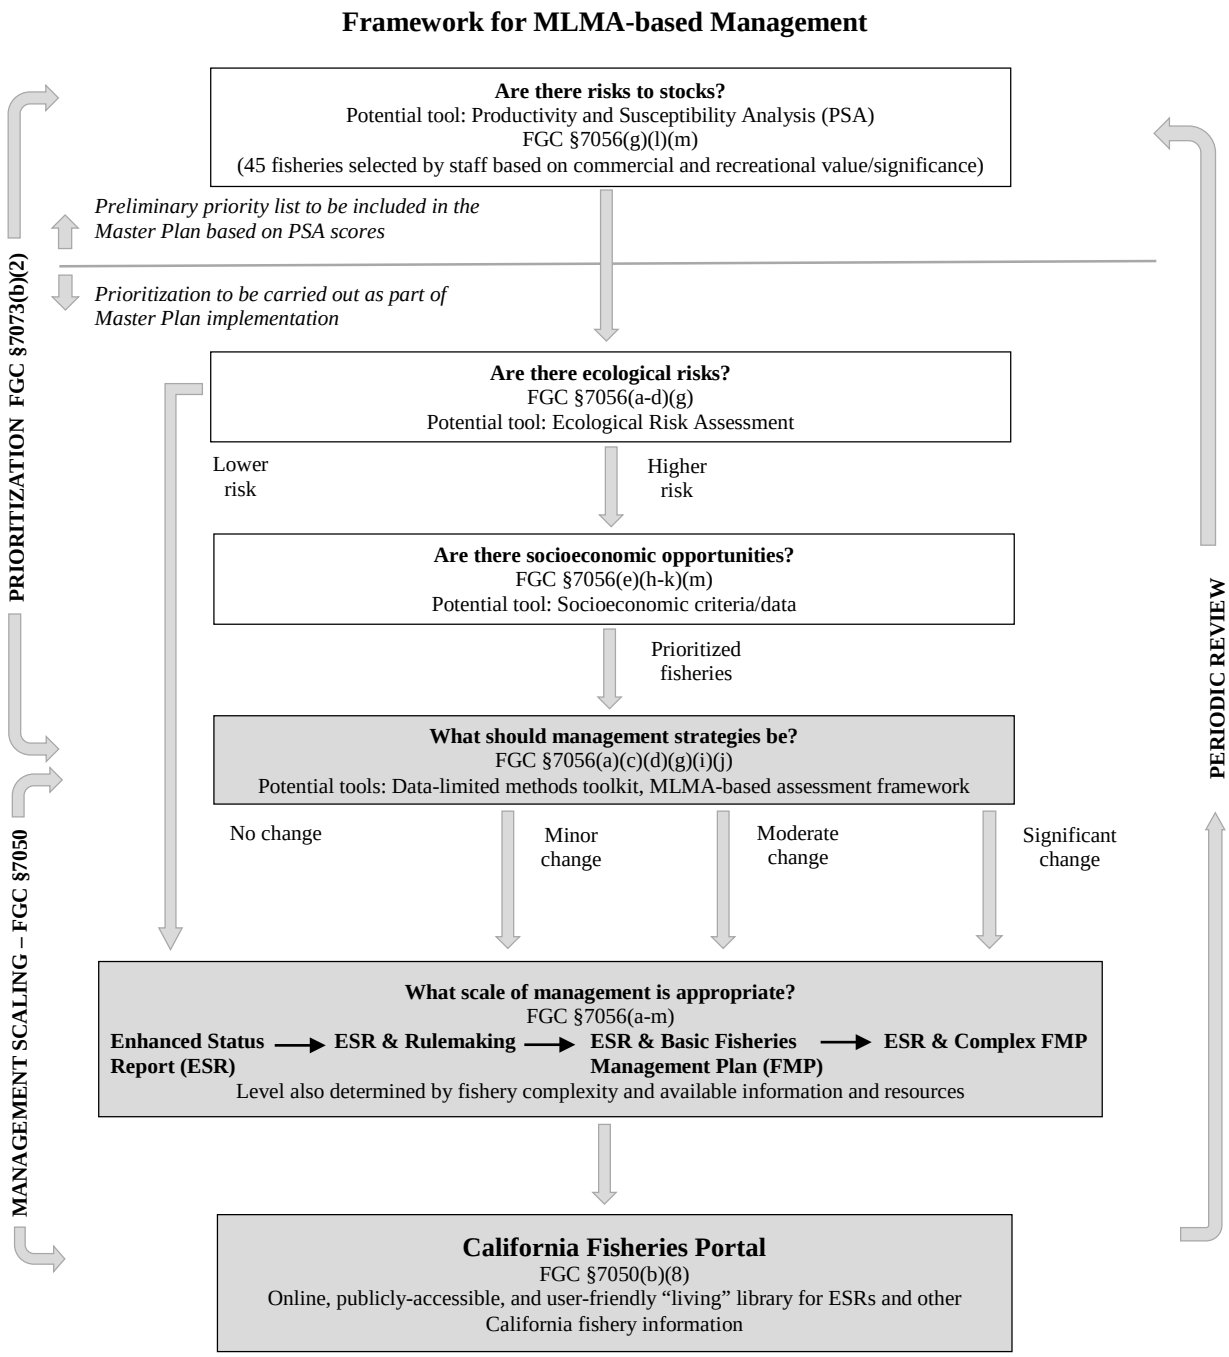

Figure 1. A framework to implement Marine Life Management Act-based management. The top component of the framework (unshaded) constitutes the approach to prioritization, and the bottom component (shaded) represents the approach to scaled management.