Refugio Oil Spill Response Storyboard

- ICP established at County EOC

RESPONSE HIGHLIGHTS FROM MAY 19 - JUNE 22 On-water vessels recovering oily water HAZWOPER 10,060 raining held fo gallons of 4,500 feet tribal cultural oily water Local fishing cubic yards vessels depart from 161 square oily soil El Capitan ICP moves from miles of Santa Barbara offshore water 1,250 cubic yards County EOC to new 9 oil removing closed to 3.804 survey oiled On-water of oily soil fishing open house vessels cubic yards California State Parks safety zone rehabilitated of beach announces established rehabilitated Crews continue Response brown pelicans oiled soil El Capitan re-opening pipeline around to recover oil and tar brown pelicans continue to operations Heavy removed June 26 May 19, 2015 from local modified during rehabilitated released 654 respons 11,999 gallons of equipment 412 response 909 response 1,193 response AIDS LifeCycle brown pelicans Plains All-American removes oily oily water mix personnel released assigned assigned culvert May 24 May 22 May 23 May 25 May 26 May 27 May 29 May 30 June 17 June 20 June 21 Unified Crews 11,600 gallons Coast Guard 10,580 feet continue to HAZWOPER 18 boats, temporary safety of oily water begins from Refugio Beach 44% of beach cleanup 91% of heach cleanu Oily water no longer training held clean sections 1 barge, zone suspended mix recovered detected offshore by cleanup of beach Remaining 2 helicopters, response no longer crews volunteer 1 fixed winged cleanup vessels threatened removed from 14,267 gallons by Refugio oil assigned 9,492 gallons Cleanup operations including 5 cubic yards working on cleanup oily water assessmen ceased at night during of oily soil Grunion run through FAA flight begin helping establisher 911 call reports oily sme response - County personnel notify OSPR and USCG - Santa Barbara County Fire Department locates source of oil - Plains local personnel respond w/ Fire Department and Office of Emergency Management respond Oiled to incident birds and mammals - Multiple reports to NRC recovered - Clean Seas activated - Plains' emergency response plan activated - Patriot Environmental activated - 4 response trailers mobilized - Skimmer vessels arrive and begin collecting oil - NRC notifies EPA Vacuum trucks begin recovering oil from release site - USCG consults with U.S. Fish and Wildlife, NOAA, National Marine Fisheries Services - Oiled Wildlife Care Network and pre-trained volunteers activated - 3,000 feet of boom deployed at El Capitan and Refugio Beach