

Refugio Response Joint Information Center

Product or Service - How can I offer a product or service to help with the incident?

Thank you for your offer to help. Vendors with products or services they feel could assist with this Unified Command response can submit an online form for consideration.

This is an initial intake form that will allow review and screening of vendor offers only.

Should the submitted products or services be identified as a possible resource, the potential vendor will be contacted by Unified Command Logistics to gather additional information.
