

Sunfish hybrid: A fish that does not have measurable physical traits to definitively distinguish as a bluegill, green sunfish, redear sunfish, pumpkinseed, warmouth, but rather shows overlapping traits of two or more of the aforementioned species. This category excludes Sacramento perch, largemouth bass, smallmouth bass, and spotted bass. This category is solely established for inland fish angling records and is based on physical traits only.