

Marine Life Management Act 101 Orientation
Brown Bag Conference Call for Interested Stakeholders
Tuesday, December 13, 2016 | 12:00pm-1:00pm PT

Conference Call Information

Conference Number: 218-339-7804
Conference ID: 792 7150

Meeting Goal: To provide interested stakeholders with a general introduction to the Marine Life Management Act (MLMA) and an overview of the motivation, goals, and process of amending the MLMA Master Plan.

Meeting Materials: Reference materials are available as “Resources” via the MLMA Master Plan webpage: <https://www.wildlife.ca.gov/Conservation/Marine/MLMA/Master-Plan>

Agenda

Introduction

- Welcome!
- Confirm meeting goals and objectives

Introduction to the MLMA and Master Plan Amendment Process

- What is the MLMA?
- What is the MLMA Master Plan?
- MLMA Master Plan amendment process overview
 - Motivations, goals, timeline
- Phased Approach
 - Information Gathering Phase
 - Amendment Phase
 - Fish and Game Commission Review & Adoption Phase

Introduction to the Overview of a Draft Amended Framework for MLMA-Based Management

- Walk through overview and flowchart

Q&A

- Encourage stakeholder questions and needs for clarification by CDFW staff
- Learn about stakeholder interests related to the MLMA and State fisheries management
- Learn about stakeholder interests and questions related to the MLMA Master Plan amendment
- Share ideas for stakeholder participation and involvement in Amendment Phase

Looking Ahead and Next Steps