Getting It Together – Fish Puzzle
From Monterey Bay Salmon and Trout Education Program

This fun and colorful activity allows students to work together to create a “larger than life-sized” salmonid.

Print out the following the sheets and distribute to students. You can give one to students or put them in pairs. Each student (or group) colors his or her section.

Tape them all together for a beautiful mural.

You can be biologically accurate or allow the students artistic flair.