

Job Opportunity

Environmental Scientist

California Department of Fish and Wildlife
Office of Spill Prevention and Response

FINAL FILING DATE—June 20th, 2017

The Department of Fish and Wildlife's Office of Spill Prevention and Response (OSPR) is looking for an enthusiastic individual to join the Drills and Exercise Unit located in the Bakersfield Field Office. The Environmental Scientist is responsible for the complete coordination of oil spill drills conducted in the Central California area to ensure compliance with oil spill contingency plan requirements; consult with plan holders and major oil and oil shipping companies as well as other governmental entities and agencies in coordination of drill objectives; contingency plan amendments and updates, to ensure the enforcement of drill planning standards; and attend meetings statewide addressing maritime and oil industry related issues.

---

Official Job Bulletin

Job Specifications and Salary Range

State Application Form

Applications may be filed by mail at:

Department of Fish and Wildlife
Attention: Sonia Martinez
1416 Ninth Street, Room 1217-B
Sacramento, CA 95814

Applications must be POSTMARKED no later than the final filing date. Applications post-marked after the final filing date will not be accepted for any reason.

* The State of California is an equal opportunity employer to all, regardless of age, ancestry, color, disability (mental and physical), exercising the right to family care and medical leave, gender, gender expression, gender identity, genetic information, marital status, medical condition, military or veteran status, national origin, political affiliation, race, religious creed, sex (includes pregnancy, childbirth, breastfeeding and related medical conditions), and sexual orientation.