

Diane Colborn was appointed by Assembly Speaker Anthony Rendon in May 2017 to fill one of the public member positions on the WCB. Ms. Colborn served as chief consultant to the California Assembly Committee on Water, Parks & Wildlife (WPW) from 2005 through 2016. Prior to her staff service with the Legislature, she worked as an attorney in the private sector for 17 years, representing a diversity of clients. During her tenure with the WPW Committee, she had the privilege of serving with five committee chairs and five Assembly Speakers. Ms. Colborn has a BA degree in Environmental Studies and Planning from Sonoma State University, and a law degree from the University of California at Davis. She has been a member of the California State Bar since 1988. Diane is retired and lives with her husband Terry and their golden retriever in Davis, CA. In her free time, she enjoys hiking, and is an avid wildlife enthusiast and birder.
