

2018 CDFW Interpretation, Education and Outreach Summit

OUR MARINE CONNECTIONS

Upper Newport Bay Ecological Reserve Back Bay Science Center

Tuesday, January 9, 2018

Check-In and Evening Networking Activity

Wednesday, January 10, 2018

- 7:00 a.m. Early Bird Kayaking Opportunity (participation optional)
- 8:00 a.m. Check-In and Breakfast
- 8:30 a.m. Welcome and Introductions
- 9:15 a.m. Our Marine Connections – Marine Region Overview and Update, Rollout of Estuarine Resource Messages
- 11:00 a.m. Discussion with OCEO/CDFW Leadership – Update, Look Ahead and Q&A
- Noon Lunch
- 1:00 p.m. CDFW Estuary Education Programs Presentations and Activities
- 3:00 p.m. Tour of Peter and Mary Muth Interpretive Center
- 5:00 p.m. Adjourn
- 6:30 p.m. Group Dinner (participation optional)

Thursday, January 11, 2018

- 7:00 a.m. Early Bird Kayaking Opportunity (participation optional)
- 8:30 a.m. Exploring Uncharted Waters – Climate Change Communication and Outreach Training
- 9:40 a.m. Keynote Speaker: Dr. Gerry Lieberman, director of the State Education and Environment Roundtable, will provide an overview of key activities related to California's implementation of the Next Generation Science Standards and explore opportunities for connections between CDFW's Interpretation, Education and Outreach programs and California's K-12 education system.
- 12:20 p.m. Field Trip: Crystal Cove State Park – Using Technology to Expand Reach (PORTS) & Citizen Science
- 2:30 p.m. Ocean Institute Training on Sea Explorer Research Vessel
- 5:30 p.m. Group Dinner (participation optional)

Friday, January 12, 2018

- 9:00 a.m. California Current – Program and Issue-specific Breakout Sessions
- 11:30 a.m. Closing Remarks and Wrap-Up
- Noon Adjourn/Travel Home