SALARY INFORMATION

Range A: $3,359 - $3,922. This range shall apply to incumbents who do not meet the criteria for payment in Range B.

Range B: $4,144 - $5,137. This range shall apply to persons who have satisfactorily completed: (1) year in California state service performing the duties of a Fish and Wildlife Interpreter I, Range A; or (2) two years of specialized work experience in connection with at least one year of which must have been performing work in wildlife management program or research activity. (Possession of a Master's Degree in Interpretation of Natural Resources or a closely related field may be substituted for the required experience.)

When the requirements for a particular criteria are met and upon recommendation of the appointing power, the employee shall receive a rate under the provisions of DPA Rule 599.676.

POSITION STATEMENT

Range A is the entry and training level of the series. Under close supervision, the Fish and Wildlife Interpreter I performs in a training and learning capacity and is expected to progress toward assuming the more responsible assignments of the Range B level. Incumbents are assigned to a regional wildlife area, ecological reserve, hatchery or Department education program and are responsible for the less difficult or varied work in interpretive and education programs.

Range B is the working level of the series. Under general supervision, the Fish and Wildlife Interpreter I performs work of average difficulty that does not include the complete range of varied or difficult assignments, typically assigned to the full journey level. May develop information into narrative descriptions for educational and interpretive services such as nature trails or exhibits; prepare area maps, area publications and signs; conduct tours, demonstrations and talks; research the potential for new interpretive facilities; manage publicity and community outreach programs; collect and summarize technical information for planning purposes; landscape and maintain exhibits and trails.

ELIGIBLE LIST INFORMATION

Eligibility expires 12 months after it is established unless the needs of the service and conditions of the list warrant a change in this period.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMITTANCE TO THE EXAMINATION

All applicants must meet the minimum qualifications by October 1, 2018.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Education: Equivalent to graduation from an accredited college or university or an equivalent degree approved by the California Superintendent of Public Instruction under the provisions of California Education Code Section 94310(b) with major work in wildlife management, zoology, fisheries management, botany or other related biological science, including at least 15 semester units, or its equivalent, of course work in natural resource interpretation, natural resource communications, or similar subjects. (Registration as a senior in a recognized institution will admit applicants to the examination but they must produce evidence of graduation or its equivalent before they can be considered eligible for appointment.) (One year of specialized work experience in wildlife or related natural resource interpretation may be substituted for the specialized course work.)

NOTE: You must list the 15 semester units of completed course work in one or a combination of the fields listed above. Include course title; number of units received for each course, and date course was completed. You may attach a separate sheet of paper or a copy of your transcripts (unofficial copy of transcripts is acceptable). This information is required or your application will be rejected.

CONTACT INFORMATION

If you have any questions concerning the Fish and Wildlife Interpreter I examination or the testing process, you may contact Tanya Bell, Exam Analyst with the California Department of Fish and Wildlife, Human Resources Branch at (916) 653-8120 or visit the Department of Fish and Wildlife website at www.wildlife.ca.gov.

GENERAL INFORMATION

For an examination without a written feature, it is the candidate's responsibility to contact Department of Fish and Wildlife three weeks after the final filing date if he/she has not received his/her notice.

Applications are available at www.jobs.ca.gov/pdf/std678.pdf, California Department of Human Resources (CalHR) offices, local offices of the Employment Development Department and the testing department on this job bulletin.

Remember, Examinations are Competitive:

If you possess the entrance requirements stated on this bulletin, you may take this competitive examination; however, you aren't assured a place on the eligibility list. Your performance in the examination is compared to established rating criteria. All candidates who pass are ranked according to their scores.

Candidates needing special testing arrangements due to a disability must mark the appropriate box on the application and/or contact the testing department.

Eligible Lists:

Eligible lists established by competitive examination, regardless of date, must be used in the following order: 1) sub-divisional promotional, 2) departmental promotional, 3) multi-departmental promotional, 4) service-wide promotional, 5) departmental open, 6) open. When there are two lists of the same kind, the older must be used first. Eligible lists will expire in one to four years unless otherwise stated on the bulletin.

If High School Equivalence is Required:

Equivalence to completion of the 12th grade may be demonstrated in any one of the following ways: 1) passing the General Educational Development (GED) Test; 2) completion of 12 semester units of college work; 3) certification from the State Department of Education, a local school board, or high school authorities that the candidate is considered to have education equivalent to graduation from high school; 4) for clerical and accounting classes, substitution of business college work in place of high school on a year-for-year basis. NOTE: For peace officer classifications please refer to the testing department for special requirements.

How Qualifications are Rated

General Qualifications for all Examinations: Candidates must possess essential personal qualifications including integrity, initiative, dependability, good judgment, ability to work cooperatively with others, and a state of health consistent with the ability to perform the assigned duties of the class. A medical examination may be required. In open examinations, investigation may be made of employment records and personal history and fingerprinting may be required.

Veterans Preference: Will be awarded in this examination, pursuant to Government Code Section 18973.1, effective January 1, 2014, as follows:

1. Any veteran, widow or widower of a veteran, or spouse of a 100 percent disabled veteran, who achieves a passing score in an entrance examination, shall be ranked in the top rank of the resulting eligibility list. Any veteran who has been dishonorably discharged or released is not eligible for veteran's preference.
2. An entrance examination is defined, under the law, as any open competitive examination.
3. Veterans Preference is not granted once a person achieves permanent civil service status.

The California Department of Human Resources (CalHR) has information on how to apply for Veterans Preference on their website at www.jobs.ca.gov and on the Application for Veterans Preference form (CalHR 1093). Additional information is also available at the Department of Veterans Affairs website at www.cdva.ca.gov.

Miscellaneous Information:

The Department of Fish and Wildlife reserves the right to revise the examination plan to better meet the needs of the service if the circumstances under which this examination was planned change. Such revision will be in accordance with civil service law and rules and all competitors will be notified.
