To: Development Grant and Contract Recipients

The Wildlife Conservation Board (WCB) recently received additional funding for our previously approved bond funded restoration and development projects to help fund them through to the end of June 2010. There is enough funding available to meet WCB's full commitment for projects that are to be completed by the end of June, 2010. For projects that extend beyond the end of June, 2010, please contact your WCB assigned project manager to determine the specific amounts currently available for your project.
