- 4. Project Priority: Hunting Opportunity and Outreach
- 5. Introduction: Hunter Opportunity and Outreach

California hunting license sales have declined steadily from 767,149 in 1970 to 268,841 in 2021. A leading cause of this decline is the loss of hunting opportunities and access. To help reverse this trend and to recruit, retain, and reintroduce hunters to the field, CWA developed a program based upon the Department of Fish and Wildlife's lottery system for hunting on public lands. Through CWA's relationship with private landowners, the program has created access to private and public lands and is identified as the California Waterfowl Hunt Program. The program has grown steadily over the past 13 years and now includes almost 40 individual properties encompassing over 60,000 acres. Since its inception in 2009, over 19,000 hunters have participated in the program with hundreds of landowners and volunteers providing in-kind services (donating, hosting, guiding hunts, etc.) and access to high quality hunting opportunities being made available to the public. The program currently hosts waterfowl, pheasant, quail, dove, deer, turkey and pig hunts. Applicants have an extensive variety of hunts to choose from which include access to some of the most prestigious and exclusive hunting properties in the country. Hunt locations range from the Klamath Basin in Northern California to the San Jacinto Valley in Southern California.

The California Department of Fish and Wildlife outlined in the 2019 California Hunting and Fishing Recruitment, Retention and Reactivation Action Plan that access and opportunity were among the eight topics of interest. Specifically: "Participation in hunting and fishing is limited by many types of access barriers. Access barriers include anything that prevents or obstructs participation. Opportunity barriers include circumstances that make it impossible to participate. Having access to fishing and hunting opportunities is contingent on addressing multiple types of barriers within both. For example, some opportunity barriers are physical or related to resources, like having access to land and water, technical equipment and the training or skill required for participation.” CDFW R3 Action Plan

Our objective is to continue offering upland gamebird hunts through the California Waterfowl Hunt Program, but we need additional support to make this a reality given the ever-rising costs associated with managing and improving the habitat, stocking pheasants and facilitating public access. This proposal requests funding to assist with managing food plots, pheasant stocking and administrative tasks in order to provide public upland game bird hunting opportunities.

We propose a stocking program of 700 pheasants from October through January at CWA’s 2,175-acre Goose Lake. This would allow us to host 20 hunt days in the fall, allowing us to reach up to 24 hunters per date, totaling up to 480 potential hunters. These hunters will be provided with a hunt map on specific hunt zones and areas of past hunter success. During shoot days, hunters will be allowed to harvest dove (during fall season) and pheasants. In addition to dove and pheasants, we will allow hunters to pursue waterfowl as well. The hunt will be advertised as a sportsman package given that hunters can hunt dove, pheasant and waterfowl in a single hunt day.

Additionally, we would plant safflower food plots totaling 50 acres for mourning doves: Locations Butte County, (Butte Creek Island Ranch and Sanborn Slough, 5 total acres of safflower) and Kern County (Goose Lake, 45 acres of safflower).

Public dove hunting program at CWA’s Butte Creek Island Ranch, Sanborn Slough, and Goose Lake will provide 10 hunt days giving 100 hunters the opportunity to hunt doves during the first dove season September 1-15th.

6. Project Description:

Location:

The proposed project will fund a public upland game hunting program on private lands for mourning dove and pheasants on the following CWA properties:

- Goose Lake (2,175 acres), Kern County
- Butte Creek Island Ranch/Sanborn Slough (370 acres), Butte County.

Other responsibilities include the management of CWA's Butte Creek Island Ranch and Sanborn Slough located in the Butte Sink, encompassing 370 acres.

Additional qualifications: California State University Chico, Bachelor of Science Degree in Biology, Pathway in Ecological, Environmental and Organismal Biology, CA Hunter Education Instructor, CPR certified.

Hunt Program Technicians, Seasonal staff members who assist with tasks associated with running a public hunt program. Technicians are onsite Wednesdays, Saturdays and Sunday's checking-in hunters, collecting waiver forms, hunter access fees and answering questions about the hunt including hunting regulations, etc.

Subcontractors:

CWA will hire a local subcontractor to supply and spread fertilizer and seed 45 acres of safflower at the CWA Goose Lake property. Other contractors include the licensed bird seller whom CWA will purchase the pheasants from.

Implementation & Materials:

CWA will coordinate reservations and liability waivers through the well-established CWA Hunt Program. Hunters will be chosen through a random lottery process administered by a third party. CWA provides professional staff, including a Hunt Program Coordinator and the necessary supervisory and support staff to administer all aspects of the Hunt Program, including but not limited to general correspondence, advertising, habitat management, hunting preparation, hosting hunts, accounting, invoicing, reporting, etc. CWA has a well-established track record, fiscal policies and procedures to effectively administer and manage this very successful Hunt Program.

How the Application Process Works:

- All applicants apply via a secured application webpage on calwaterfowl.org.
- Each hunt application has a small processing fee. Applicants are allowed to apply once per hunt opportunity in an effort to ensure equality amongst all applicants to enjoy a unforgettable hunting experience.
- After the hunt winner and guest(s), pay the $25 hunter access fee and complete the liability forms, CWA then sends the hunt details to the hunting party.
- Hunter access fees are waived for all junior hunters.
- Each hunter must fill out liability forms online and the day of the hunt.
- Applicants are not required to be CWA members.

- CWA supplies liability insurance up to $1,000,000 Common Cause and $3,000,000 Aggregate.

CWA will advertise and promote the pheasant and dove hunt program as public hunting opportunities through direct mailers to California hunters, CWA magazine (18,000+ members), outdoor magazines and submitting local press releases to local news outlets.

A hired contractor will supply a tractor and necessary equipment to successfully plant safflower food plots totaling 45 acres at Goose Lake. CWA staff will plant and prepare a total of 5 acres of safflower food plots at Butte Creek Island Ranch and Sanborn Slough. CWA owns the necessary tractors, mowers, disc, and seed spreaders to successfully plant 5 acres. After purchasing pheasants, CWA will house, feed and water pheasants at Goose Lake. Bird facilities are already present at Goose Lake. Additionally, CWA will provide the mowing equipment such as tractors, mowers and diesel to properly prep the food plots prior to dove season, Sept 1-15.

Priorities:

The public upland game hunt program will provide a much-needed hunting opportunity and outreach for public hunters to pursue dove and pheasant hunting on uncrowded lands that are specifically managed for bird hunting. The Goose Lake property is especially important in delivering public hunting opportunities to Southern California hunters. Southern California provides approximately 90% of all hunting license sales but suffers from very limited public hunting access. With this project, we can provide much needed public hunting opportunities in a region with very limited public access. The Goose Lake area is also adjacent to severely disadvantaged communities. Funding could provide for public access to these communities.

Permitting:

This project is exempt from all permitting as it will only consist of minor alterations to the land and there will be no negative impacts to the physical environment that would reduce its ability to produce native or agricultural plants.

7. Expected Management Benefits:

This project will provide 30 public hunt days reaching up to 580 hunters directly and several thousand hunters indirectly through advertisement and educational routes, all to help recruit, retain and reintroduce hunters to the field and reverse the downward trend in hunting license sales. Land enhancements include planting 50 acres of safflower specifically for mourning doves. This public hunt program project will provide additional high quality upland game hunting opportunities to the public hunter to pursue doves and pheasants. Waterfowl hunting will also be permitted when drawn.
