Job Opportunity

Executive Director, Wildlife Conservation Board

Become a leader in California's Conservation Legacy.

Over its 75-year history, the Wildlife Conservation Board (WCB) has invested over $3 billion to conserve and restore more than 2 million acres of California's precious natural resources. WCB is seeking a new Executive Director to continue this work.

WCB is seeking a leader to:

- Carefully steward more than $1B in new investments through grants and acquisitions
- Manage a 40-person staff using best management practices
- Be dedicated to environmental justice and securing equity for all Californians
- Achieve conservation goals set out in WCB's Strategic Plan
- Monitor WCB's projects to assess the success of WCB's previous and future investments
- Maintain and build new partnerships
