

Come Climb the Walls with Us!

Experienced AND Newbies Welcome

5 March 2025, 4:30 P.M. – 8:30 P.M.
116 N 16th St, Sacramento

Need to blow off some energy following all this exciting science?¹ Please join us at our local climbing gym, Sacramento Pipeworks, in downtown Sacramento. It'll cost you $30 for a day pass, plus rental fees if you need shoes, a harness or a chalk bag. If you're an experienced climber (bring your gear), you likely know what to expect. If you're new to climbing, you're especially welcome and there'll be a few of us on hand to show you the ropes. All folks can enjoy the extensive bouldering options (short, close-to-ground routes above a padded floor), but there are also numerous top rope and lead routes too. Save time and complete a waiver now!

Brag Over Brews Afterwards...

Climbers AND Non-climbers!

5 March 2025, 5:30 P.M. – 10:00 P.M.
116 N 16th St, Sacramento
(yep, same address as the gym)

Please join us—climbers and non-climbers alike—at the Pintworks Restaurant and Brewery (open until 10 P.M.) immediately adjacent to the gym. Where else can you get Peter Croft's favorite² hazy double IPA, Astroman? Even if you can't do the climb, you can drink the ale! Good food too. See you there!

Disclaimer: All participation in these events is voluntary. No agencies, entities, or staff within IEP are responsible for participant's costs, damages, or harm that may be incurred from participating in these events.

¹ Arrive before 3, and the day pass is only $25. Yoga and various fitness classes also available (call'em to verify: 916-341-0100). The gym opens at 6 A.M. and you do have in and out privileges with your day pass, so...

² Peter's a Canadian climber who famously soloed the Yosemite classic, Astroman. I don't actually know if Peter's even tried this one, but if he drinks beer and tasted this one, I'm pretty sure he'd agree.
