You may renew online by logging in to your account using CDFW's Online License Sales and Services website at www.licenses.wildlife.ca.gov/internetsales/. Step-by-step online renewal instructions are available at wildlife.ca.gov/Licensing/Commercial-Fishing (see the "Fees and Descriptions" section of the web page). Be sure to review and update your contact information when renewing your licenses online. If renewing your boat registration, read the "Proof of Vessel Ownership Requirement" section of this renewal update.

Renewing at Select License Agent Locations

Only select license agent locations can renew existing commercial fishing licenses. Before visiting a license agent's location, call ahead to make sure they are open and to confirm their hours of operation. Please visit the online License Agent Search web page at www.licenses.wildlife.ca.gov/internetsales/OutletSearch/FindOutlet to locate an authorized sales agent location near you. Ensure you check the "Sells Commercial Fishing Items" box before clicking the "Search" button.

Renewing at a license agent requires your 2025-2026 Commercial Fishing License and/or Commercial Boat Registration Worksheet(s), or your previously issued Commercial Fishing License and/or Boat Registration thermal license. Prior to going to an authorized license agent to renew your boat registration, read the "Proof of Vessel Ownership Requirement" section of this renewal update. CDFW strongly encourages customers to review all of their purchases to confirm the items issued are correct before leaving any authorized license agent.

IMPORTANT REQUIREMENT REMINDERS:

- Address Update Requirement
All commercial fishers are required to notify CDFW of their new address within three months of when they move or acquire a new address pursuant to Fish and Game Code section 7875(m). Ensure your address and other contact information is correct when renewing your licenses by mail, online, at select license agent locations, or select CDFW sales offices.
- Proof of Vessel Ownership Requirement
Proof of vessel ownership (i.e., United States Coast Guard Certificate of Documentation, California Department of Motor Vehicles Certificate of Number, or out of state vessel registration) must be current and on file with CDFW before you can renew your vessel registration. You may submit proof of vessel ownership to us using the mailing address listed above, by logging in to your CDFW vessel record and uploading the document, or by email to LRBCOMM@wildlife.ca.gov. Please allow 15 business days for mail and 2-3 business days for email or file upload submittal for CDFW staff to update your vessel record. License agents cannot accept proof of vessel ownership.

New California Fisheries Chart (commonly called fishing blocks)

Effective January 1, 2025, all commercial fisheries reporting that requires a block number (fishing block), must use a revised reference chart available at <https://wildlife.ca.gov/Fishing/Commercial/MFSU>. This applies to all electronic fish tickets and those commercial logbooks requesting block codes.

Commercial Fishing License Reminders

If you would like to receive email reminders for annual license and registration renewals, purchase availability and deadline dates, write your email address on the preprinted renewal worksheet(s) when renewing by mail. You can also provide a new, or update your existing, email address online after logging into your customer account via CDFW's Online License Sales and Services website at www.licenses.wildlife.ca.gov/InternetSales/.

Deadline to Renew Limited Entry Permits

The deadline to renew your Limited Entry and Restricted Access Permits for the 2025-2026 permit year without incurring late fees is April 30, 2025. Renewal applications will be denied if received after March 31, 2026. Once denied, a written appeal may be submitted to the California Fish and Game Commission within 60 days of the date of CDFW's denial.

Change of Vessel Ownership and/or Limited Entry and Restricted Access Permit Transfers

All Limited Entry and Restricted Access Permits have unique change of ownership and/or transferability requirements outlined in California laws and regulations. CDFW strongly encourages permit holders to contact the License and Revenue Branch at (916) 928-5822 or LRBCOMM@wildlife.ca.gov before initiating a permitted vessel change of ownership or attempting to transfer a permit to another person. Doing so allows permit holders to obtain the unique requirements for their permit and proposed action before taking steps that could potentially jeopardize future use of the permit.

Fishery specific applications containing instructions and/or requirements for permitted vessel change of ownerships and permit transfers can be found online at wildlife.ca.gov/Licensing/Commercial-Fishing#transfer-limited-entry.

Nontransferable Limited Entry Permits, including Spot Prawn Trap Vessel (Tier 2 and Tier 3) Permits, cannot be transferred to another person upon a change of the permitted vessel's ownership.

All permit transfers must be approved by CDFW. Permit holders are responsible for complying with all applicable laws, rules, and regulations.

Commercial Dungeness Crab Trap Gear Retrieval

Any commercial Dungeness crab gear left in the water after the close of the season is subject to retrieval under CDFW's Lost or Abandoned Commercial Dungeness Crab Trap Gear Retrieval Program (California Code of Regulations, Title 14, section 132.7). CDFW encourages Dungeness crab vessel permit holders who are contacted by authorized entities to work cooperatively and arrange for the return of their lost gear in exchange for a freely negotiated retriever trap fee. Failure to comply with the regulations will result in additional fees and potential permit restrictions.

Retrieval of lost or abandoned commercial Dungeness crab gear is also allowed under California Code of Regulations, Title 14, section 132.2. Fully accounting for all gear retrieval is an important component of CDFW's efforts to reduce marine life entanglements and obtain an Incidental Take Permit under the federal Endangered Species Act. If you retrieve gear under this section, please notify the Whale Safe Fisheries team using the online contact form at wildlife.ca.gov/Conservation/Marine/Whale-Safe-Fisheries or via email at WhaleSafeFisheries@wildlife.ca.gov.

Groundfish

Changes to Federal rules - Beginning March 1, 2025, vessels participating in the directed open access groundfish fishery in federal waters will be required to carry a directed open access groundfish (DOAG) permit. Please contact the National Marine Fisheries Service, West Coast Region's Permit Branch at (206) 526-4353 or wcr-permits@noaa.gov with registration or application questions.

Salmon Fishery Season

The 2025 California ocean salmon fishing season has not yet been determined. Season openings that would take effect between April 1 and May 16, 2025, will be decided at the Pacific Fishery Management Council (PFMC) meeting in March. Season openings and regulations that would take effect on or after May 16, 2025, will be decided by the PFMC at its meeting in April.
