2012 Duck Stamp Art Contest

The Department of Fish and Game has hatched the 2012-2013 Duck Stamp art competition! This year the contest has been goosed up a bit - the species isn't a duck, but rather the Aleutian Canada Goose. Plus, for the first time there is also a separate youth artist category. To enter, please take a gander at the rules and complete the entry form and participation agreement online at <http://www.dfg.ca.gov/duckstamp/>. Then let your imagination take flight!

duck. duck. goose.
