This reservation may not be transferred to another person; it is valid only for the persons and hunting license numbers listed on the letter. The entry permit issued will only be valid in the section (A, B, or C), for which it is issued. Section (or hunt area) selection will be made at the check station by the hunter. Entry permits will be issued from the check station starting two hours before legal shoot time. The persons named on the Congratulations letter may only hunt in the section they have chosen or are assigned. Entry permits are valid until 12 noon or until you leave the wildlife area.

Reservations are valid up to 1 hour before legal shoot time.

All permits must be returned to the check station, a Department of Fish and Game employee, or a drop box upon leaving the area.

There is no shell restriction during the September dove season and lead shot may be used.

Adult hunters must have a 2012-13 Upland Game Bird Stamp affixed to their 2012-13 hunting license.

This hunting opportunity was funded primarily through Upland Game Bird Stamp funds, Fish and Game Preservation Funds (hunting license sales), and Federal Aid in Wildlife Restoration Funds (federal excise tax on firearms and ammunition).

Please be considerate and courteous to other hunters in the field and have a safe enjoyable hunt.

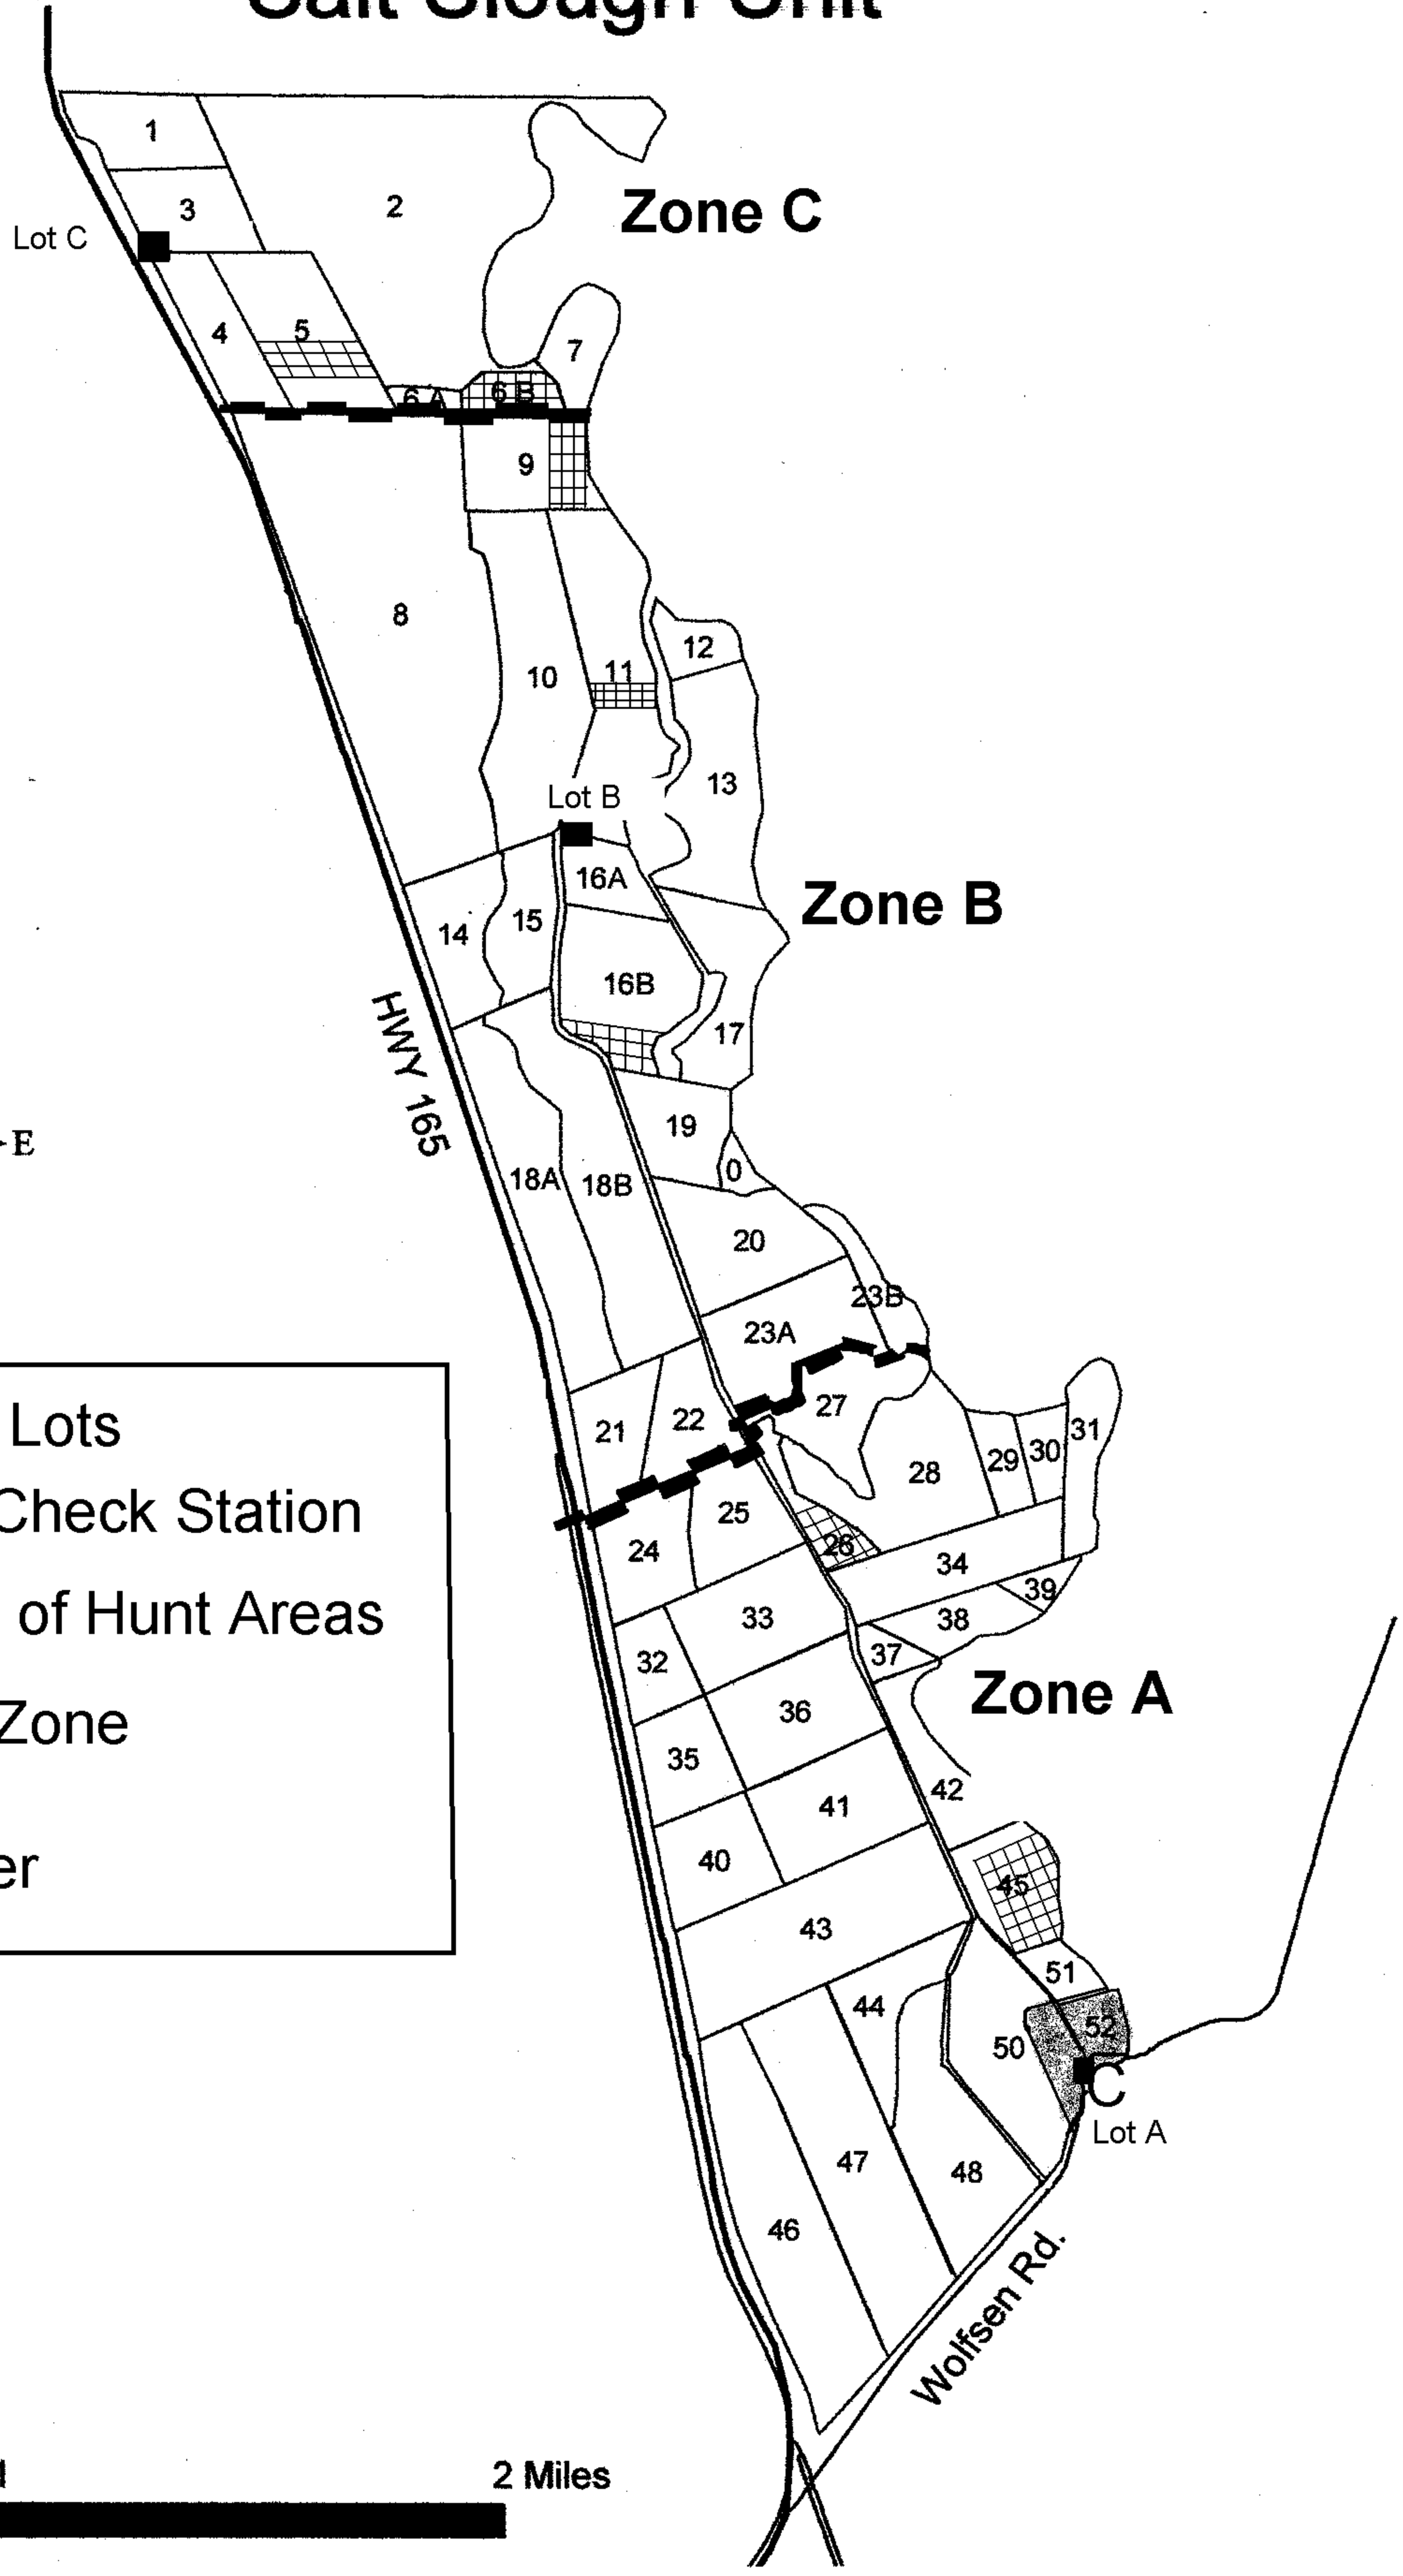

If you have any questions regarding opening day procedures, please call (209) 826-0463

Sincerely,
