

Job Opportunity

Oil Spill Prevention Supervisor I

Open Departmental for California Dept of Fish and Wildlife

Office of Spill Prevention and Response

FINAL FILING DATE – July 3, 2013

This is the first supervisory level in the series over professionals at the Specialist level. Under direction, the Supervisor I will plan, organize, prioritize, direct and review the work of employees performing oil spill prevention and response activities; monitor, train and evaluate employees; respond to oil spills, assist in investigations and provide technical expertise; ensure timely completion of program objectives and special studies; coordinate the scheduling of and participate in drills; review and make recommendations to improve procedures and policies; complete special projects for the Administrator; interact with major oil companies, Coast Guard, other governmental entities and agencies; testify before the various legislative bodies.

Official Job Bulletin

<http://jobs.ca.gov/Bulletin/Bulletin/Index?examCD=3FG15>

Job Specifications and Salary Range

<http://www.calhr.ca.gov/state-hr-professionals/pages/7850.aspx>

State application form

<http://jobs.ca.gov/Profile/StateApplication>

Applications may be filed in person or by mail at:

Department of Fish and Wildlife

Attention: Exam Unit

1416 Ninth Street, Room 1217-B

Sacramento, CA 95814

Applications must be POSTMARKED no later than the final filing date. Applications post-marked, personally delivered or received via inter-office mail after the final filing date will not be accepted for any reason.