Comments/Issues: Nov. 13, 2013 Meeting (Gonzales not present)

SWAP Intentions are admirable as are the objectives. However, if there are no "teeth" in the final product - i.e.: no way to enforce the proposed solutions to problems, and if "action" is only "voluntary" then I don't think project will succeed in proportion to the $$ dollars spent.

Also, I see a lot of overlap of jobs that already exist in the present DFW organization. Unless there is very close coordination and cooperation between the SWAP project people and DFW field personnel.

Lastly - who resolves recommendations that may result in ~~present~~ criticism of current procedures being followed/ conducted by existing field personnel of DFW -

Please use additional sheets if necessary.
