La Bella Toscana! Touring Tuscany's Hills and Valleys

Ah, the pleasures of Italy. Delicious wines, masterpieces of art and architecture, exquisite scenery. And if you are a bicycler, what better way to enjoy Italy's treasures than on a Destination: Unlimited tour of Tuscany? Our latest journey to this favorite region combines vigorous cycling trips down vine-covered hills and leafy lanes with stops at rustic trattorias and historic Medici villas. We start in Florence, where you can admire the spectacular Duomo and the Botticellis in the Uffizi Galleries. Then we'll cycle through the Chianti countryside — with plenty of stops to sample renowned wines.
