OFFICES OF THE FORTY-SECOND CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA TO REMAIN OPEN TO SERVE AND ASSIST CONSTITUENTS

July 19, 1999

Washington, D.C. -- The Washington, D.C. office and the district office of the Late Honorable George E. Brown, Jr. will continue to serve the people of the Forty-second Congressional District of California under the supervision of the Clerk of the House of Representatives. Representative Brown died July 15, 1999.

Staff members of Representative Brown remain on the House payroll under the supervision of the Clerk of the House to receive and undertake constituent casework, to help in handling business with the departments of the executive branch of the government, to provide general status information on pending legislation and to offer other general constituent services provided by House offices.

Jeff Trandahl, Clerk of the House of Representatives, said that the Washington, D.C. office and the California district office are presently open on a daily basis to accommodate congressional business. Under House rules, the Clerk manages the offices when a Member dies, resigns, or is expelled. This authority, which does not include voting representation, continues until a successor is elected to fill the vacant seat. This is the third vacancy of the 106th Congress; nine such House vacancies of sitting Members occurred due to death or resignation in the 105th Congress.

The Washington office is located in 2300 Rayburn House Office Building, telephone (202) 225-6161. Mail addressed to the Office of the Forty-second Congressional District of California, Washington, D.C. 20515, will be delivered through the internal House mail distribution system.

The district office is located at: 201 North "E" St., San Bernardino, CA 92401, telephone (909) 383-1233.

Requests for further details should be directed to the Office of the Clerk (202) 225-7000.
