

FILE NOTE

July 16, 1956

Middle Velma Lake, El Dorado County

Joe Hill of the Mt. Ralston Club reported on 7/10/56 that he caught six rainbow trout about 12 inches in length. All of these contained white filamentous worms in the lower intestine. The worms were 2.5 to 3 inches long and from this location and appearance he believed them to be tapeworms.

L. R. Dunham
Assistant Fisheries
Biologist
Region II

LRD/bw