

2014/2015 PACIFIC HERRING DAILY OBSERVATION FORM

If at any time Pacific herring are detected within the Project specific buffer zone, all Project activities shall stop immediately and Department staff (see contact information below) shall be notified.

California Department of Fish and Wildlife Contact Information

Arn Aarreberg, Environmental Scientist
Office phone – 707-576-2889
Cell phone – 707-791-4195
Email – Arn.Aarreberg@wildlife.ca.gov

- Project Name/Location _____
- Observer Name _____
- Date _____
- Start Time _____
- Stop Time _____
- Shoreline survey results

- Environmental Conditions (tide stage, water temp, wind, cloud cover, etc...)

- Describe Project activities during shift

- Identified species and estimated numbers

		Distance
California Least Tern	# _____	_____
Brown Pelican	# _____	_____
Cormorant	# _____	_____
Gulls	# _____	_____
Harbor Seal	# _____	_____
California Sea Lion	# _____	_____

Other species

		Distance
_____	# _____	_____
_____	# _____	_____
_____	# _____	_____
_____	# _____	_____

- Describe Pacific herring activity and approximate location, if observed.

- Additional notes and observations