

Memorandum

To : Files

Date: May 24, 1974

From : Department of Fish and Game

Subject: Squaw Creek, Colusa County

Squaw Creek is a tributary to East Park Reservoir. On October 10, 1972, the entire stream was dry with the exception of several spring fed pools near the highway crossing above the reservoir. The pools were chemically treated and small squawfish, suckers and sunfish were killed.

Eric Gerstung
Assistant Fishery Biologist
Region 2